

In a recent Financial Mail article titled ‘Wealth plan for the future’, the Alexander Forbes Performer portfolio was quoted as being “the closest fund to a universal default”.

Great investment outcomes are often just the culmination of good results for a long period of time.

For many trustees and retirement fund members, Performer is the go-to portfolio used in the growth phase of the retirement or long-term savings journey.

This is because it has been tested against different market cycles and consistently delivered competitive return streams which, in turn, have compounded into superior long-term performance for investors.

Performer is more than just a portfolio - it's a compelling investment solution

For over two decades, we've dedicated our collective knowledge, skill and world-class multi-management capabilities to select and blend multiple, complementary asset managers into Performer.

Today, Performer is optimally blended across different asset classes and styles of money management, giving clients access to the brightest and most differentiated investment opportunities wherever they exist in the world, and at the best deal.
